ABOUT TCMA

The Texas City Management Association (TCMA) is an organization of local government professionals dedicated to promoting the highest standards of governance, service, leadership, ethics, and education while embracing individual and regional diversity for the benefit of our membership and the cities of Texas.

TCMA is member driven, ethical, and inclusive; committed to the council-manager form of government; dedicated to effective partnerships with elected officials; devoted to the professionalism of our organization and members; determined to provide quality service to our membership and the cities we serve.

TCMA COMMITTEES

TCMA has eight committees. Each committee is dedicated to promoting professional standards, exchange of information, integrity, and efficiency in city government. The Committees include Budget and Planning, Advocacy, City Managers of Tomorrow, Ethics, Membership, Nominating, Professional Development, and TCMA Allies. For more information about each committee, please visit the TCMA website at www.tcma.org.

MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS AND SERVICES

1. Annual Conference

TCMA meets regularly each year at its annual conference in early summer. The conference provides educational and networking opportunities. Members discuss current trends in city management and related fields.

2. Specialized Training

Management-related training programs are offered throughout the year. The City Management Clinic is designed to educate and support individuals in city management positions on current and relevant issues. Two William "King" Cole workshops provide an opportunity for training in the fundamentals of city management.

3. Regional Meetings

Regional meetings provide opportunities for continued professional growth and networking. They are usually held at least quarterly (though activity varies among the ten TCMA regions).

TCMA CODE OF ETHICS

Guidelines to these ethical tenets, as well as applicable rules of procedure for enforcement, are available on the TCMA website (www.tcma.org) in the About Us section.

1. We believe professional management is essential to efficient and democratic local government by elected officials.
2. Affirm the dignity and worth of local government services and maintain a deep sense of social responsibility as a trusted public servant.
3. Demonstrate by word and action the highest standards of ethical conduct and integrity in all public, professional, and personal relationships in order that the member may merit the trust and respect of the elected and appointed officials, employees and the public.
4. Serve the best interests of the people.
5. Submit policy proposals to elected officials; provide them with facts, and technical and professional advice about policy options; and collaborate with them in setting goals for the community and organization.
6. Recognize that elected representatives are accountable to their community for the decisions they make; members are responsible for implementing those decisions.
7. Refrain from all political activities which undermine public confidence in professional administrators. Refrain from participation in the election of the members of the employing legislative body.
8. Make it a duty continually to improve the member's professional ability and to develop the competence of associates in the use of management techniques.
9. Keep the community informed on local government affairs; encourage communication between the citizens and all local government officers; emphasize friendly and courteous service to the public; and seek to improve the quality and image of public service.
10. Resist any encroachment on professional responsibilities, believing the member should be free to carry out official policies without interference and handle each problem without discrimination on the basis of principle and justice.
11. Handle all matters of personnel on the basis of merit, so that fairness and impartiality govern a member's decisions pertaining to appointments, pay adjustments, promotions, and discipline.
12. Public office is a public trust. A member shall not leverage his or her position for personal gain or benefit.
